FROM THE Principal

Although it is not officially winter for a few weeks, it has definitely turned into winter weather! It is hard to complain after such a beautiful fall. We are happy to see students dressed so warmly so they can enjoy playing at recesses in the fresh air.

We have a busy time coming up! Next Friday, we are excited to welcome Quest Theatre back again to share their interpretation of Snow White. What a great opportunity for students to experience live theatre.

In addition, next Friday, November 29th is our 3rd annual Student Vendor Holiday Market! Our nearly 50 vendors are very excited to sell their hand-made products to help you get ready for the holiday season. You are sure to find something special for your loved ones and friends! Please come by to shop next Friday from 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. and remember it is a cash only event. There will be a concession stand and some students will even be selling baked goods to fill your freezer for the holidays.

Mr. Ulmer and students in grades one, two, and three are busy in music class preparing for their Winter Song Book and Nutcracker performances on December 10th and 12th. Both days will have an afternoon and evening performance. Parents, please choose either the 1:30 p.m. or 6:30 p.m. show to attend, due to fire restrictions. Students need to attend both shows. For the evening performances, please arrive to drop your child off at their homeroom

Please be on the lookout for a link coming your way next week to participate in our Friends of Cooper's Crossing Society's "Merry Money Split" 50/50 raffle! What a great fundraiser idea to help support our students in so many ways.

Keep reading for more updates on all that is going on at Cooper's Crossing School!

Have a great weekend and stay warm!

Diana

2CP and 4V are joining up to collect a variety of winter clothing items to help those in need as part of our Character in Action Trait for December- PURPOSE!

Quest Theatre Snow White by Greg Banks

We are so happy to welcome back Quest Theatre to Cooper's Crossing for the performance of Snow White by Greg Banks.

When the rest of the cast fails to appear, two performers are left to tell the classic tale. Creative staging, music and imagination are woven together to present this innovative storytelling adventure proving that anyone can tell any story.

Breakfast Club / Snack Attack Donation!

We are thrilled to have received the Jim Swan Award for School Breakfast Programs on behalf of Iron Horse Park and the Alberta Model Engineering Society! Thank-you for selecting Cooper's Crossing School for this special award. Your donation will greatly support our students and our ability to continue to provide nutritious snacks and breakfast items to students in need. Students who are fed and well fueled for the day are ready for learning. We were so happy to meet Vice-President of Iron Horse Park, Ms. Donna Wood, Mrs. Kathy Swan, and Mr. Keith Bailey on Thursday to receive a cheque in memory of past volunteer, Mr. Jim Swan. Many thanks!
